

Saplings

for the child in all of us!

Illustrated Books

“A book is a dream that you hold in your hands.”

~ Neil Gaiman

At Saplings, we believe that creativity is essential to self-esteem and personal growth, and that we all have a story to tell, or a picture to paint. Our mission is to foster a sense of creativity, and a love of books, in our children, and to instill a sense of wonder and inspiration in both children and adults alike!

- (industry standard) page counts are 24 and 32 (although others are also available)
- we can use your illustrations or provide illustrations for you in a variety of mediums
- use our printer, or go direct to Amazon/KDP
- includes provision of ISBN, and registration with the National Library of Canada

NEW! Hearts Entwined ... a special way to share your love and memories with aging parents/ grandparents or friends; or children/grandchildren that you see regularly, or from whom you may be separated or alienated.

Email lisa@onethousandtrees.com for more information.